Dear 黎杉(2039156931),

Hello, long time no see. How is everything?

I'm sorry to bother you here, but have you remember the e-mails you received in the last few months inviting you to come to our organization? We found out you never accepted them, and now they're all expired.

As the owner of our organization, you may have to accept this invitation to help us manage it. Now we will send you the last invitation, please accept, and thanks a lot!

Of course, you may decline our invitation, but please respond to these decisions.

Wish you will have a good time!

Yours,

YingLunTown & DreamLand Development Group,

2th September, 2023.
